

Find Your Treasures!

Each numbered shop on this list matches a marker on the map, so you can plan your route town by town. As a bonus, look for the butterflies and flowers along the way. From late October through February, stop by a Monarch Grove to see butterflies clustered in the trees, or visit a Pollinator Garden any time of year.

Cambria

1. Antiques On Main
2. Buy George "I Think I've Got It"
3. Rich Man • Poor Man Antique Malls

a San Simeon Natural Preserve · Monarch Grove
b Fiscalini Ranch Preserve · Monarch Grove

Morro Bay

4. Hwy 41 Antique Emporium
5. Tara Lee's Antiques
6. Rich Man • Poor Man Antique Malls

c Morro Bay Golf Course · Monarch Grove
d Los Osos · Monarch Grove

Paso Robles

7. Great American Antiques
8. Reminisce Antiques

Atascadero

9. The Hope Chest Emporium

San Luis Obispo

10. Brooks Antiques
11. Monterey Street Vintage & Antiques

e Mission Plaza · Pollinator Garden
f SLO Botanical Garden · Pollinator Garden

Pismo Beach

12. Pismo Pickers Antiques & Vintage

g Avila Valley Barn · Pollinator Garden
h Pismo State Beach Monarch Butterfly Grove

www.CentralCoastAntiqueShops.com

Arroyo Grande

13. A Glance Into The Past
14. Branch Street Antiques
15. Rhonda's Relics
16. The Green Vase

i Nipomo Native Garden · Pollinator Garden

Orcutt

17. De' Ja' Vu Antique Mall & Gifts

Los Alamos

18. Sister's Gift and Home

Santa Ynez

19. Pieces of the Past Vintage & Antiques Collective
20. Antique Advertising

Cambria

Tucked into Monterey pines where the mountains meet the sea, Cambria is a storybook village. Wander the East Village's storefronts, then stroll Moonstone Beach. Hearst Castle and Piedras Blancas elephant seals lie just north.

1 Antiques On Main

2338 Main St., Cambria • (805) 927-4292

Nestled in Cambria's historic east village. Over 100 dealers and consignors, and over 10,000 sq ft of shopping delight. Antiques, furniture, estate & costume jewelry, artifacts, collector beads, pottery, porcelain, deco lamps, clocks, vintage & designer clothing, post cards, art, musical instruments, collectibles and more. New merchandise arrives daily. New vendors always welcome. Open Mon-Sun 10-5.

antiquesincambria@gmail.com

2 Buy George "I Think I've Got It"

Located at Cambria Nursery & Florist

2801 Eton Rd., Cambria • (805) 909-1362

Antiques – vintage – collectibles. Very eclectic collections of antiques & vintage items. Great 1960s and early '70s toys. Something for everyone's collections! Open daily 9-4.

3 Rich Man • Poor Man Antique Malls

2110 Main St., Cambria • (805) 203-5350

In the East Village of beautiful Cambria. 18th and 19th century through mid-century modern furnishings, art, and accessories. Dealers specialize in estate and Native American jewelry, coins, Bakelite, china and crystal, Roseville pottery, sterling silver, and vintage clothing. Home of "Big John's Man Cave," with porcelain signs, automobilia, and sports memorabilia. Patio plants and planters outside. Open daily 10am or by appointment.

Instagram: @richman_poorman_antiques

Morro Bay

Watched over by the 576-foot volcanic dome of Morro Rock, this working fishing town keeps its salty charm. Sea otters float in the bay, fishing boats unload along the Embarcadero, and fresh fish and chips are never far away. Between shops, find a bench with a view of the Rock and let the harbor set the pace.

4 Hwy 41 Antique Emporium

520 Atascadero Rd. (Hwy 41), Morro Bay • (805) 771-8000

"We have everything from fossils to diamonds." More than 12,000 sq. ft. of space, featuring many seasoned vendors with an assortment of the finest antiques on the Central Coast. Open daily 10am.

www.hwy41antiqueemporium.com

5 Tara Lee's Antiques

248 Morro Bay Blvd., Morro Bay • (805) 776-5150

Great view of the Rock, steps from the Embarcadero. Specializes in good vibes and great buys, with many seasoned vendors offering antique, vintage and collectible items, artwork and clothing. Open daily 10am.

Instagram:@tara_lees_morro_bay.

6 Rich Man • Poor Man Antique Malls

2200 Main St., Morro Bay • (805) 225-1400

Newly revived interior showcasing spectacular antiques and vintage rare finds in an 8,000 sq ft luxurious space. Everything from crystal chandeliers to mid-century home and man-cave specialties. 35+ professional dealers. Specializes in estate jewelry and silver as well as sports memorabilia and coins. Extensive Native American jewelry selection and a vintage clothing boutique inside. Open Daily 10-5.

Paso Robles

At the heart of wine country, Paso Robles pairs Western roots with small-town warmth. Its historic downtown wraps around a park lined with tasting rooms and restaurants. Oak-studded hills and hot springs set an easygoing pace.

7 Great American Antiques

1305 Spring St., Paso Robles • (805) 239-1203

8,500 square feet of treasures across 13 rooms, showcasing 30 dealers. Everything from postcards to pottery, clothing to cast iron, Victorian to vintage. Minerals and crystals, extensive vinyl collection, unique gifts. Fresh merchandise arrives daily. Open daily 10-6.

8 Reminisce Antiques

1344 Pine St., Paso Robles • (805) 239-1001

A charming village-style marketplace in the heart of downtown Paso Robles. More than 30 vendors and artisans fill the shop with antiques, vintage finds, handcrafted goods, and a lovely selection of jewelry. Wander from nook to nook and discover something new around every corner. Open Mon.-Sat. 11-5, Sun. 11-4.

Atascadero

Founded in 1913 as a planned "colony," Atascadero centers on its grand City Hall and Sunken Gardens. Oak woodlands frame the town, and the zoo and lakeside park make easy stops along the way. It's a friendly place with deep local history.

9 The Hope Chest Emporium

8845 El Camino Real, Suite A, Atascadero • (805) 600-0922

A large community marketplace creating a lot of buzz. Incredible selection of furniture, home decor, art and vintage items, plus a patio area with furnishings and plants. Very affordable prices, ranging from newly created items to century-old antiques from local artisans and vendors. Candles, clothing, gift baskets, jewelry, collectibles and more, many handcrafted. Also houses a small shop supporting restoration of the first building of Atascadero (circa 1915). Open daily 10-5.

San Luis Obispo

Built around its 1772 mission, SLO blends college-town energy with old California grace. Creekside paths wind behind historic downtown, and the Thursday night Farmers' Market fills Higuera Street with music and barbecue smoke. Don't miss the famously colorful Bubblegum Alley.

10 Brooks Antiques

2087 Santa Barbara Ave., SLO • (805) 544-2505

Eclectic selection of furniture (new and used), antiques, collectibles, glassware, lighting, garden iron, and much more. A true destination location with a wide variety of furniture and decorative items. Open Mon.-Sat. 10-5.

11 Monterey Street Vintage & Antiques

1599 Monterey St., SLO • (805) 544-5900

Nestled along historic Monterey Street, where nostalgia meets discovery. Curated collection of vintage and mid-century furniture, retro fashion, decorative glass, classic books, unique jewelry, and a wide selection of vinyl LPs. Open Mon.-Sat. 10:30-5, Sun. 11-5.

Pismo Beach

Pismo is the classic California beach town: a long wooden pier, wide sandy shores, and surfers riding the breaks. From late October through February, thousands of monarch butterflies cluster in the eucalyptus grove south of town. Take a break with a bowl of clam chowder and catch a Pacific sunset off the pier.

12 Pismo Pickers Antiques & Vintage

537 Five Cities Dr., Pismo Beach • (805) 773-3777

Located in the Pismo Coast Plaza just off Hwy 101 at Five Cities Drive on Fourth Street. Wide variety of furniture, mid-century, jewelry, glassware, antique tools, postcards and cameras, fishing gear, retro clothing. Large selection of vinyl, fireman memorabilia and Hawaiian shirts.

Open Mon.-Sat. 10:30-5, Sun. 11-5.

Arroyo Grande

The Village of Arroyo Grande wears its 19th-century roots proudly, with brick and clapboard storefronts lining historic Branch Street. Cross the beloved Swinging Bridge over Arroyo Grande Creek, say hello to the free-roaming chickens, and linger over coffee or ice cream. With several shops within walking distance, the Village is made for an afternoon of treasure hunting.

13 A Glance Into The Past

410 E. Branch St., Arroyo Grande • (805) 489-5666

Old Town Arroyo Grande's largest antique mall. Plenty of parking. 5,000 sq ft with 30 dealers. Reasonable prices, dealers welcome. No crafts or reproductions. Buys estates, furniture, glassware, pottery, silver and bric-a-brac. Open daily 10-5. www.aglanceintothepast.com

14 Branch Street Antiques

126 "B" E. Branch St., Arroyo Grande • (805) 489-6208

Invites you down the rabbit hole. Wide selection of antique and vintage jewelry, art decor from around the world: furniture, coins, glass, toys, and gemstones. Enter from the stairs on the street or the stairs in rear parking.

Open Mon.-Sat. 10:30-4:30.

15 Rhonda's Relics

148 W. Branch St., Arroyo Grande • (805) 270-4045

A treasure trove of vintage charm, featuring over 25 dealers, each with their own stylish take on home decor and vintage goodness. Warm, welcoming atmosphere: cozy cottage, chic industrial, funky fab, and rustic charm in one-of-a-kind finds presented in delightful vignettes. Carefully selected new merchandise, including artisan jewelry and art. Displays change constantly; regulars visit weekly for an all-new treasure hunt. Call the store for vintage pop-up sale dates. Free parking behind the store.

Open daily 11-5.

16 The Green Vase

200 Nelson St. (one block off Branch, across the historical swinging bridge), Arroyo Grande • (805) 489-3624

A restored 1886 cottage decorated with international antiques and unusual pieces to decorate your home. Jewelry (new and antique), mirrors, lamps, paintings, linens, furniture, mid-century modern and much more.

Open Wed.-Sat. 11-4:30.

Orcutt

Old Orcutt began as a 1904 oil boom town and keeps its roll-up-your-sleeves character. Its compact downtown is lined with local restaurants, pubs, and shops in its early buildings. Just south of Santa Maria, it's a relaxed, neighborly stop.

17 De' Ja' Vu Antique Mall & Gifts (At the Loading Dock)

315 South Broadway St., Old Orcutt • (805) 314-2409

Established in 2013. Something for every collector's dreams. Beautiful new furniture selection from many fabulous companies, repurposed items, primitive furniture, shabby chic and home fashion. Open daily: Mon.-Sat. 10-5, Sun. 10-4. Facebook: DeJaVu Antiques at the Loading Dock.

www.dejavuldantiques.com

Los Alamos

Founded in 1876 on the stagecoach route, Los Alamos looks like a Western movie set. Bell Street's century-old buildings house tasting rooms, bakeries, and restaurants amid wine country.

18 Sister's Gift and Home

349 Bell St., Los Alamos • (805) 357-9415

Vintage and antiques. Garden decor. In the beautiful Leslie house, built in 1880. Summer hours: Mon 11-4, Tues 11-4, Wed closed, Thurs-Sun 10-4. January-March, call for hours.

Santa Ynez

Surrounded by oak-studded hills, horse ranches, and vineyards, Santa Ynez is a small town with genuine Old West charm. Browse the shops along Sagunto Street, then explore the Santa Ynez Valley Historical Museum and Carriage House. Solvang and Los Olivos are minutes away.

19 Pieces of the Past Vintage & Antiques Collective

425 Alisal Rd. Suite D, Solvang • (805) 688-5533

3,200 sq. ft. Of vintage awesomeness! 35+ dealers bringing in carefully sourced,curated pieces from around the world daily. Eclectic mix of Vintage, antique, retro, mid-century modern, western, military, native american jewelry, estate jewelry, and more.

20 Antique Advertising

(booth inside Pieces of the Past)

500 + different fruit labels, comic books, old coins, stock certificates, pinup girl prints, auto magazines & ads, old bottles, Elvis, Marilyn, old checks, arrowheads, WW2, gemstones, post cards, holidays, calendars, Victorian prints, gas station maps, railroad,

Advertise with us: $275 for the full year

15,000 maps printed and distributed throughout the Central Coast, plus a listing on our dynamic website, built so AI search tools like ChatGPT can find and recommend you. With 7.7 million visitors a year, and over a quarter of travelers now planning trips with AI, that's more than 2 million potential shoppers searching a new way.

Central Coast Antique Shops.com

For more places to shop, visit
CentralCoastAntiqueShops.com.

© 2027 Live Artfully. Map illustration and design by Jenny Malott. All rights reserved.
No part of this map may be reproduced without permission.